TED UNIVERSITY AYŞE ILICAK LIBRARY
EXTERNAL USER RULES

1. Users should carry the visitor pass with them and show it to the staff when necessary.

2. Except for TEDU Ayşe Ilıcak Library, users are not allowed to visit the campus.
   In cases determined by security, the user is prohibited from using the library indefinitely.

3. External users can access all library facilities (printed and electronic resources, periodicals, copy service, wireless internet etc.) can be used in the library. Lending cannot benefit from the service, cannot take any material out of the library, and cannot they cannot access resources from off-campus.

4. In order to borrow books from other university members, the university library they are affiliated with They can request books by using the Interlibrary Cooperation service through the channel.

5. Cell phones must be turned off or set to silent at the entrance.

6. Food and drink should not be entered into the library.

7. Smoking should not be allowed anywhere in the TED University Ayşe Ilıcak Library.

8. Persons are responsible for their personal belongings. In case of lost or stolen TEDU Ayşe Ilıcak Library is not responsible.

9. Users can use the library during working hours. In case of emergency (fire, water raid etc.) librarian may request users to leave the library.

Our D block library is open to undergraduate, graduate students and TED members.

Our library serves all users.

When deemed necessary, user restriction can be made by TED University.

All users are required to fill in the "External User Rule Agreement and Form".

Please contact the library staff for detailed information.